

Job Opening

Subject to approval by the third-party funding body, a position as a

Student assistant (m/f/d)

is available to support the Chair of Public Law and International Law (Prof. Dr. Thilo Maruhn) in the project „The post-Holocaust Development of Legal Remedies as a Learning Process"/ "Die Entwicklung rechtlicher Wiedergutmachungsinstrumente nach dem Holocaust als Lernprozess", expected to start on 01 August 2022.

The work schedule is 40 hours per month and is limited to 18 months.

Your tasks:

- Carrying out academic, organizational and administrative tasks in the scope of the aforementioned project as a contact person between Colombia and Germany, in particular:
  - Assistance in the organization and implementation of the summer school, including: Communication with the lecturer/students from Colombia; responding to inquiries from Colombia; assisting interested candidates; supporting the preparation and implementation of excursions
  - Administrative tasks
  - Academic support in the context of research and teaching in the field of the project topic
  - Preparation as well as participation in discussion rounds, meetings and workshops with project participants, students and lecturers
  - Assistance with public relations; social media support

Your qualificatins and competences:

- Very good knowledge of English, both written and spoken
- Engaged and self-reliant way of working
- A special interest in public law, in particular constitutional and public international law
- Good working knowledge of all common MS Office programs
- In-depth IT knowledge is desirable

We offer an opportunity to gain an insight into internationally oriented project work and to work in a highly motivated and supportive team.

Please send your application with the relevant documents via email by 05 July 2022 with the subject "Application HK-Remedies-Contact Person" to:

Sekretariat.Maruhn@recht.uni-giessen.de

and Ayse.M.Boehringer@recht.uni-giessen.de