Interdisciplinary spring school: Basic principles for peace and sustainable development in Ukraine and beyond

*April 3rd – April 6th 2023
Justus-Liebig-University Gießen*

The Justus-Liebig-University Gießen (JLU), the National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy (NaUKMA) and the CAPAZ Institute are staging a one-week spring school event on Peace and Conflict Studies. The Spring School focuses on Ukrainian students (BA/MA) of different disciplines. In addition, the program creates a stage for the Ukrainian students to have an informal exchange with students participating from JLU. This exchange is financially supported by the HMWK and students will get up to 6 ECTS for participation.

The program involves a week of in-person student participation at the JLU in Gießen, Germany. It starts with an introduction of keynote presentations and continues with in-depth seminars. These are focusing on transitional justice, gender and intersectionality, migration and refugees, as well as political education and promotion of democracy.

Registration Requirements:

- Students of the departments of law, social studies, culture studies, environmental science or similar
- Special support for people suffering heavily from the ongoing war in Ukraine

Expenses included:

- Partial scholarship 320€/student
- Participation in the Spring School without fees

The applications must be sent in one pdf file, until March 9th 2023 with the subject: "Spring School", to the e-mail address: ukraine@instituto-capaz.org. For questions, please contact the same e-mail address.
