

1991-2000 Studies of Modern and Contemporary History, Comparative Literature, Theatre, Film and Television and Cultural Communication at the Universities of Bonn, Cologne and Berlin;

1994/1995 Erasmus Fellowship at the Università degli Studi di Perugia;

she received her Magister Artium in 2000 in Berlin; 2000-2002 Assistant at the TU Berlin;

2002-2004 Fellowships of the German Historical Institutes Paris and Rome and DAAD (PhD project in History on „Cristina Trivulzio di Belgiojoso (1808-1871). Historiography and Politics in the Risorgimento“);

since 2004 free lance consultant for Public Relations and Political Education;

2007 foundation of the Office for the Italian-German Dialogue.