

Curriculum Vitae

Nicole Immig

Vertretung der Professor für Südosteuropäische Geschichte am Historischen Institut der Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen

Biographie

- Since 2016 Onassis Assistant Professor of Modern Greek History Boğaziçi University Istanbul/ Turkey, History Department
Book project: Visual Histories of World War One in the Balkans – An entangled history of Media in times of conflict 1912-1923
- 2016-2017 Lecturer
Justus-Liebig University Giessen, Dept. of Eastern and South-Eastern European History
- 2016 Postdoctoral Research Fellow
Centre of Modern Greece (CemoG Berlin)
Project: Networks of German Cultural Policy: Knowledge Transfer and Propaganda in Greece in World War One
- 2013-2016 Postdoctoral Research Fellow
Friedrich-Schiller University of Jena, DFG Graduate School 1412:
Cultural Orientations and Social Order in South-Eastern Europe
Project: Images of Ottomans and Turks in Greece 1821-1930
- 2011-2013 Lecturer
Justus-Liebig University Giessen, Dept. of Eastern and South-Eastern European History
- 2013 Ph.D. in South-Eastern European History, Humboldt University of Berlin
Thesis: Between Participation and Emigration: Muslims in Greece 1878 – 1897
- 2002 M.A. in Modern History, Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, Political Science, University of Cologne
Thesis: The Smyrna Issue in International Politics 1919 - 1923