

Module description

Module title	PSYCH-MA-PFM-09: Psychotherapy (seminar)
Subject	Psychotherapy Research: From Research to Practice
Associated degree	Master of Science (M.Sc.); also for exchange students in a B.Sc. programme
Module coordinator	Prof. Dr. Julian Rubel Julian.Rubel@psychol.uni-giessen.de
Frequency and duration	Winter (1 semester course, 1.5h per week)
Language of instruction	English
Examination	Presentation, essay or written exam
ECTS	5
Prerequisites	Minimum of 9 ECTS in abnormal/clinical psychology
Learning outcomes	Students will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• learn different possibilities to evaluate psychological interventions</li> <li>• know fundamentals and models from psychotherapy and their applications for various symptoms and disorders</li> <li>• learn the framework and ethics of clinical psychological work</li> <li>• gain in-depth knowledge of clinical psychological assessment and interventions for mental health issues</li> </ul>
Module content	The seminar focuses on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the rationale and aims of psychotherapy (process) research</li> <li>• different approaches to psychotherapy research</li> <li>• methods of psychotherapy research</li> <li>• methodological and reporting standards in psychotherapy research</li> <li>• guidelines for treatment</li> </ul>