

ICAE

INSTITUTE FOR COMPREHENSIVE ANALYSIS OF THE ECONOMY

Unil
UNIL | Université de Lausanne

Institut des sciences sociales
(ISS)

GGGS
Gießener Graduiertenzentrum
Sozial-, Wirtschafts- und Rechtswissenschaften

Workshop “Forms of Power in Economics: New perspectives for the Social Studies of Economics between networks, discourses and fields”

Giessen University
December 6-7 2018

Venue: Goethestrasse 58, 35390, Giessen, room: 201

Program

Thursday 6, December 2018

11:00-11:15: Welcome

11:15-12:45: Economic Knowledge and Discursive Power

Ceyhun Gürkan (Ankara University, Faculty of Political Science, Department of Public Finance): “The constitution of neoliberal governmentality from early neoclassical economics to public choice theory”

Jens Maesse (University of Giessen, Institute of Sociology): “Discursive power in economics: visibility, hierarchy and myth production in academia”

Flemming Bjerke (Independent scholar): “Power in Competition”

14:30-16:30: Social Capital/Academic and Extra-Academic Networks

Thierry Rossier and Pierre Benz (University of Lausanne, Social Sciences Institute): “Forms of Social Capital in the Field of Economists. Between Scientific, Academic, and External Powers”

Elisa Klüger (Brazilian Center of Analysis and Planning & Princeton University): “Differentiating patterns of international circulation of economists in terms of capitals, networks, and ideas”

Stephan Pühringer and Karl Beyer (Johannes Kepler University of Linz, Institute for Comprehensive Analysis of the Economy (ICAE)): “Why economics is still political economy. Economists as enlightened expert and/or political proclaimers”

Gerardo Costabile Nicoletta (Independent scholar): “A laboratory for economic expertise: Lay and undisciplined perspectives on Italian disciplinary economics”

Coffee

17:00-18:00: Academia and Experts

Lukas Bäuerle (Cusanus Hochschule, Institute of Economics): “The power of economic textbooks: shaping meaning and identity”

Hendrik Theine (Vienna University of Economics and Business, Institute for Institutional and Heterodox Economics) and Maria Rieder (University of Limerick, School of Modern Languages and Applied Linguistics): “Economists in public: Power and legitimacy in the debate over pluralism and inequality in Germany”

Friday 7, December 2018

10:00-11:30: Experts, Power, Politics

Moritz Neujeffski and Kardelen Guenaydin (WZB, Berlin): “Is it really all Schäuble's fault? Experts and austerity perspectives in four major government advisory bodies in Germany from 1998 to 2017.”

Peter-Wim Zuidhof (University of Amsterdam, Department of European Studies): “Depoliticizing Europe: The Power of Novel Economic Techniques in EU Policy”

Katrin Hirte (Johannes Kepler University of Linz, Institute for Comprehensive Analysis of the Economy (ICAE)): “Intended and unintended non-knowledge - a neglected area in the debate on economic pluralism”