What-We-Have

LANZHOU UNIVERSITY

Gansu Province is located at the upstream of the Yellow River, winding more than 1600 kilometers from the east to the west. It is the intersection zone of Qinghai-Xizang plateau, the Loess plateau and Inner Mongolian plateau like the shape of jade Ruyi, meaning good luck and blessing. The landform is so diverse, including grasslands and mountains, glaciers and rivers, Gobi desert.....Being colorful not only in the land view, it is also blessed as the cradles of traditional Chinese culture and enriches with a splendid cultures of 54 ethnic groups among all 56 Chinese peoples.

Lanzhou University (LZU) situates in Lanzhou, the capital city of Gansu as well as the geometric center of Chinese territory. Established in 1909, LZU is under the direct administration of Chinese Central Government, spanning 583 acres across two campuses and three affiliated hospitals. Covering a wide range of disciplines with distinctive advantages and features, LZU has a total of 12 disciplines and hosts a vibrant academic community, comprising 19,775 undergraduates, 10,572 postgraduates, and 2,559 doctoral candidates and a faculty of 3,781 members.
