Good day Asrin Hashemy,

Welcome to JLU Giessen.

To access JLU's online services during your studies, you will receive an account. This consists of your username and email address. To activate your account, you will need a one-time password consisting of the following:

1. Your token, which is as follows: ONPGGOTZ
2. Your seven-digit student ID number, which appears on your certificate of enrollment. You will receive this by mail.
3. Your full date of birth.

These three components, separated by hyphens, form your personal one-time password in the format ONPGGOTZ-000000-YYYY-MM-DD. To activate your account, enter your one-time password here:

<https://www.uni-giessen.de/iam-account-activation>

During the activation process, you will receive your username and email address. You will also need to create a password to access JLU's online services.

Important: You can only activate your account once. After successful activation, you will receive a confirmation email containing your username and university email address.

If you have any problems or questions, please contact the helpdesk of the University Computer Center (HRZ) at 0641 99 13200 or write to iam@uni-giessen.de.

Best regards

Master Economics of Global Risk (Conditional) Admission

Admission Letter

Option 1: No Admission Conditions

- Prior experience in Economics and Statistics at the Bachelor's level
- Start taking Master's level courses aligned with the EGR program (register for courses in Stud.IP*)

Option 2: Conditional Admission

- Not enough experience in Economics and/or Statistics at the Bachelor's level
- Take additional Bachelor-level courses alongside your Master's studies (take both types of courses in parallel)

* We will talk about Stud.IP later.

Conditional Admission

! Conditional admission Master EGR: In the first two semesters, 30 ECTS in the field of economics must be completed additionally. For this purpose, all bachelor's modules from the Department of Economics and Business Studies (FB 02, JLU) with the module code 02-VWL: BSc... and the moduls Introduction to Microeconomics and Introduction to Macroeconomics can be taken. (31.08.2024)

Each course has 6 ECTS,
so that:
30 ECTS = 5 Courses

- Don't worry, we have enough English-taught courses on Bachelor level!
- Most of them are available online as videos, so you can take them from anywhere
- Just a heads-up: You need to meet all the required conditions for the admission within the first two semesters. Unfortunately, there's no way to extend the deadlines, even if you arrive late due to visa issues or other delays.

Conditional Admission: Bachelor courses in English
