

IAWE26, July 25–27 2025

CALL FOR PAPERS

The theme of the 26th conference of the International Association for World Englishes (IAWE26), which will take place in-person only at Justus Liebig University Giessen, Germany, July 25–27 2025, is ‘World Englishes through Space and Time’. Papers with a focus on regional variation in English are invited – particularly when they relate to diachronic variability as captured in the conference theme. Papers can also have a more explicit focus on any of the conference subthemes listed here:

World Englishes and Applied Linguistics
World Englishes and Corpus Linguistics
World Englishes and Cultural Linguistics
World Englishes and Discourse Analysis
World Englishes and Education
World Englishes and Intercultural Communication
World Englishes and Language Acquisition
World Englishes and Language Contact
World Englishes and Language Pedagogy
World Englishes and Language Policy
World Englishes and Lexicography
World Englishes and Linguistic Landscapes
World Englishes and Linguistic Variation
World Englishes and Multilingualism
World Englishes and (Social) Media
World Englishes and Sociolinguistics
World Englishes and World Literatures
Code-mixing, Code-switching and Translanguaging
English as a Lingua Franca
English as an International Language
English-medium Instruction (EMI) Worldwide
The history of world Englishes
Language and Globalisation
Pidgins and Creoles
Varieties of English

Abstract Deadline and Submission

Please send your abstract (max. 200 words excluding references) as an attachment in .docx format to iawe26@ang.jlug.de until 05 January 2025. At the top of the document, please set out a) your full name, b) your affiliation, c) whether you hold a PhD and d) whether you wish to be considered for the Braj B. Kachru Student Award.

IAWE will again present the Braj B. Kachru Student Award for the best paper from a student at the Association’s international conference. The award is named in honor of Professor Braj B. Kachru, whose influential scholarship helped establish the field of world Englishes, in recognition of his exceptional commitment to student scholarship throughout his career. This award carries a US

$1000.00 prize. A committee composed of IAWE officers and/or editorial board members of the journal World Englishes will select and announce the winning paper at the conference.

Plenary Speakers

The plenary speakers at IAWE26 and the titles of their talks are presented here for your information:

Kingsley Bolton (Stockholm University and Ateneo de Manila University):

World Englishes: Forty Years and Beyond

Raymond Hickey (University of Duisburg-Essen and University of Limerick):

Second-language English: Contact, Core and Communalities

Pam Peters (Macquarie University):

The Americanization of English in Anglophone and non-Anglophone countries: transnational attraction or global English?

Isabel Pefianco Martin (Ateneo de Manila University):

Translanguaging for Deeper Learning: Embracing Pluricentric Englishes in the Classroom

Dushyanthi Mendis (University of Colombo):

World Englishes: Into the Future

Salikoko S. Mufwene (University of Chicago):

A Uniformitarian Approach to the Kachruvian Concentric Model of World Englishes

Conference Website and Contact

For continuously updated details about the conference, please visit the conference website (<https://www.uni-giessen.de/iawe26>) and feel free to reach out with any questions you may have via iawe26@ang.jlug.de.