

TaLC 12 – Final Circular, 15 July 2016

Dear TaLCers,

The final program and the book of abstracts are now available on the conference website. So basically, everything is set for your arrival, and we very much look forward to welcoming you all to Giessen next week! Here is just some last-minute information that might help you prepare for your trip to Germany.

Weather

The extended weather forecast is currently promising wonderful weather for the next week, with temperatures of 25°C during the day and 10°C during the night with hardly any rain. However, we would recommend bringing along some rainwear and/or an umbrella in any case, as the ‘summer’ has been very unpredictable this year!

Evening program at the Alt Giessen on Wednesday and the Dach Café on Friday

The conference warming will take place at 7pm at a local brewery called Alt Giessen, which is about 15 minutes on foot from the conference hotel and 10 minutes from the conference venue. If you are only arriving at the hotel after this time, please do still join us – we’ll have plenty of food and drinks ready for you ;-)! Directions to the “Alt Giessen” are available on the map that you can also find on the conference website.

For the gala dinner at the Dach Café, we will meet for drinks on the rooftop (select Skybar in the elevator) at 7pm and move down one floor for the dinner at around 7:30pm. Don’t forget to pack something nice to wear ;-).

Travel information

Most of the relevant travel information can be found on the conference website. If you have any specific questions or need assistance in buying tickets, please let us know.

Mobile devices

There will be free Wi-Fi available at the conference venue as well as in the conference hotel. Also, there will be internet access in all conference rooms.

Electric sockets

In Germany the standard voltage is 230V. The standard frequency is 50Hz. The power sockets that are used are of type F. If you are coming from abroad, you may need to bring an adaptor.
