

CULTURAL IDENTITIES IN A GLOBAL WORLD: REFRAMING CULTURAL HYBRIDITY

INTERNATIONAL INTERDISCIPLINARY
LABORATORY-CONFERENCE
24-25 JUNE 2021, ONLINE

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS
1 MARCH 2021

From the local to the global, cultural hybridity nowadays travels across the individual, political, religious, biological, cultural and virtual spaces in the historical contexts of nation-state, transnationalism and globalisation. Hence, hybridity can entangle new meanings and action-oriented concepts. This conference aims to reframe the discourse on hybridity by exploring this cultural artefact in theory and social practice and as a still useful analytical tool in the study of culture.
