NOTE: Cork is suffering from a housing crisis and the university does not have enough accommodation for international students. Accommodation is hard to come by, to get student accommodation students should apply as soon as possible. The university warns of scams on websites like daft.ie and facebook, so people looking for housing should be careful. Another resource for housing is <https://hostingpower.ie/> which gives students a room with host families, but most of them are further away from the centre.

Other Costs

Public Transport: 1.90 € per ticket. Students recommend to apply for the “Leap Card” which allows you to take public transport for 0.65 € per ticket.
