

Hartmut Kliemt

Chronological curriculum vitae

26.11.1949	Born in Mönchen-Gladbach, West Germany
1956-1968	Primary and secondary school education
1968-1969	Univ. Regensburg and Göttingen: Philosophy, Sociology and Mathematics studies
1969	Intermediate exam philosophy at Göttingen (after three terms)
1969-1974	Frankfurt University: Philosophy, Sociology and Management studies
1974	Frankfurt University: Diploma in Management
1974-1976	University of Dortmund: Operations Research -- teaching and doctoral studies
1976-1980	University of Mainz: Philosophy of law – research and doctoral studies
1977	Dr. phil. University of Frankfurt
1980-1982	Stipend for second dissertation on the German “Habilitation” level
1983	University of Frankfurt: Habilitation department of philosophy
1984-1988	Substitute professorships: Munich (Prof. Stegmüller phil. science), Frankfurt (Prof. Becker political philosophy), research stay Center for Study of Public Choice (Prof. Buchanan), research participation in the 1987/1988 game theory in the behavioral sciences project ZiF Bielefeld (Prof. Selten)
1988-2006	University of Duisburg: Full professor of philosophy
2006-2016	Frankfurt School of Finance and Management: Professor of philosophy and economics (and 2009-2015 vice president research of FS)
2015	“emeritus” professor of university of Duisburg-Essen (Retired Beamter Land NRW)
Since 2017	Gastprofessor Universität Giessen “Behavioral Economics“