

3 THINGS TO DO BEFORE BOOKING A GERMAN COURSE

I'm an exchange student and I would like to take a German course at JLU

Tick here

1

Activate your JLU account

I can sign in with my JLU account and have access to my JLU email address. For guidance click here.

☐

2

Have an EEA bank account ready

I have an EEA IBAN for SEPA direct debit. Course fees cannot be paid in cash.

Tip: You can try to apply for a multi-currency-account like Wise, Bunq or Revolut bank account from anywhere in the world

☐

3

Show your German level

I have a proof of my German proficiency as PDF file ready to upload.

☐

Which proof is accepted?

- For Level A1.1 no proof is needed, you will be asked to upload an empty PDF
- Passed a JLU evening course? Upload your Certificate of Achievement
- Other recognized certificates: Goethe Certificate, KMK Language Diploma, TestDaF, ÖSD, or telc Certificate (with a grade of 'satisfactory' or higher)
- No certificate? Take this placement test (max. 90 min) and save the result as PDF.

All boxes ticked? You are ready to register.
