

Prof. Dr. iur. Jelena von Achenbach, LL.M. (NYU)
born November 28, 1982

Junior Professor for Public Law
Justus-Liebig-University Giessen
Law Department
Licher Str. 64
35394 Giessen
Germany

jelena.v.achenbach@recht.uni-giessen.de

Education

May 2014	Master of Laws (LL.M.), New York University School of Law
May 2012	Second Legal State Exam, State of Berlin Grade “Fully satisfactory” (10 points), ranking 24 th of 286 candidates.
July 2011	Dr. iur. (Ph.D. in Law), Heidelberg University (Summa cum laude).
January 2006	First Legal State Exam, State of Saxony Grade “Very good” (14 Points), ranking 1 st of 287 candidates.
2002 - 2005	Study of Law, University of Leipzig and University of Passau.

Professional Experience

September 2017	Guest Professor, University of Wisconsin Madison Law School (teaching principles of EU law and EU institutions)
Since September 2016	Junior Professor of Public Law, Justus-Liebig-University Giessen, Law Department
Summer Term 2016	Deputy Junior Professor for Public Law, Justus-Liebig-University Giessen, Law Department
Fall Term 2015/2016	Leibniz Fellow, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg.
2014-2016	Postdoctoral Researcher and Lecturer for Public Law, Justus-Liebig- University Giessen, Law Department

2012 - 2014	Research Fellow and Junior Lecturer for Constitutional Law at Humboldt University Berlin, Law Department, associated with the Chair for Public Law and Financial law (Prof. Dr. Christian Waldhoff).
2012	Legal Desk Officer at the Federal Ministry for Labour and Social Affairs, responsible for the Law of the European Union and European Migration (parental leave replacement).
2010 - 2012	Obligatory Legal Clerkship (Referendariat), inter alia at the Federal Ministry of the Interior and at the Federal Constitutional Court, Department of the President, Prof. Dr. Andreas Voßkuhle.
2009 - 2012	Research Fellow and Junior Lecturer for Public Law at Humboldt University Berlin, Law Department, associated with the Chair for Public Law and Jurisprudence (Prof. Dr. Christoph Möllers, LL.M.).
2006 - 2008	Research Fellow, Max Planck Research Group „Democratic Legitimacy of Ethical Decision-Making in Law“ at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg. Visiting Doctoral Student at the European University Institute, Florence (Italy). Junior Lecturer for Constitutional law at Heidelberg University.

Awards and Scholarships

Science Prize of the German Federal Parliament 2017 (Wissenschaftspreis des Deutschen Bundestages 2017)
 Scholarship for Master's Studies, awarded by the German National Merit Foundation, 2013 - 2014
 Scholarship for Master's Studies, awarded by the German Academic Exchange Services, 2013 - 2014
 Scholarship for Master's Studies and Research in the US, awarded by the Bucerius Foundation, 2013 – 2014
 Dean's Graduate Award for the Academic Year 2013–2014, School of Law, New York University
 Ph.D. Scholarship of the Max-Planck-Society, 2006 - 2008
 Ph.D. Scholarship of the German National Merit Foundation, 2007 - 2010
 Prize for the First State Examination, Leipzig University, 2006