German-Ukrainian Student Online-Seminar Cooperation in Criminal Law

During March–June 2026, the Department of Criminal Law of the Faculty of Law of Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University took part in the international educational project of the German-Ukrainian Student Online-Seminar Cooperation in the Criminal Law, organized in cooperation with Professor Pierre Gauck (Profess Pierre Hauck, LL.M. (Sussex)), Head of the Department of Criminal Law, European Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure at the University of Justus Liebig University Giessen, Germany.

Within the framework of the project, ten students of the Faculty of Law of Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University had the opportunity to work in the international academic environment, joining the joint study of topical issues of Ukrainian and German criminal legislation. The participants analyzed the peculiarities of legal regulation, compared approaches to solving criminal law problems, discussed current trends in the development of criminal law and exchanged experiences with German students.

The project participants from the Faculty of Law of ChNU were:

- Vyacheslav Harbuz, 2nd year student, with the topic "Corruption Criminal Offenses: Comparative Analysis of the Legislation of Ukraine and Germany";
- Bozhena Kozek, 3rd year student, with the topic "Criminal and legal protection of critical infrastructure";
- Mark Makedon, 2nd year student, with the theme "Corporate Criminal Responsibility: Dogmatic Approaches and Peculiarities of Regulatory Regulation";
- Anna Pavlyuk, 5th year student, with the topic "System of crimes related to fraud: theft and misappropriation of property";
- Victoria Pasichnyk, 4th year student, with the theme "Legalization (laundering) of property obtained by criminal means: § 261 of the Criminal Code of Germany and Article 209 of the Criminal Code of Ukraine";
- Olga Perdeyko, 3rd year student, with the topic "Fraud with financial resources (Article 222 of the Criminal Code of Ukraine and §§ 264, 265b of the Criminal Code of Germany)";
- Iryna Sama, 2nd year student, with the topic "Anti-Corruption Provisions of Criminal Legislation of Germany (§ 299, 331 and subsequent Criminal Code of Germany)";
- Maria Sichkar, 2nd year student, with the topic "Criminal liability of legal

- entities: comparative legal analysis";
- Nadiya Sokrovska, 3rd year student, with the theme "Budget criminal offenses: Article 210 of the Criminal Code of Ukraine and § 266 of the Criminal Code of Germany";
 - Yelyzaveta Yavorska, 2nd year student, with the topic "System of crimes related to fraud: a comparative study of the legislation of Ukraine and Germany".

Within the framework of online seminars, students presented the results of their research, prepared within the project, and got acquainted with the peculiarities of the criminal legislation of Ukraine and Germany. Participation in the project contributed to the deepening of professional knowledge, the development of skills of comparative legal analysis and academic communication in English.

Participation in the international project was an important step in establishing international cooperation between the Department of Criminal Law and one of the leading institutions of higher education of the Federal Republic of Germany and created new opportunities for professional development of applicants of the Faculty of Law.

The Department of Criminal Law expresses its sincere gratitude to Professor Pierre Gauc for fruitful cooperation, openness to academic partnership and support for Ukrainian students. We hope that the cooperation initiated will become the basis for the implementation of new joint educational and scientific initiatives.
