

AAA – Int C1.2		Intensive Course: German as a Foreign Language C1.2	Independent of the Semester	6 CP
Module Description		Intensive course: German as a foreign language - Level C 1.2
Module Code		AAA – Int C1.2
AfK Number		AfK-Nos. 72
Department / Subject / Institute		Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office), section: German as a foreign language (DaF)
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...		The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:		Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation		Proof of Level C1.1 – either with an external language certificate (Goethe Institut, VHS evening classes, German as a foreign language (DaF) certificate – or internal test of the international office
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies		An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module		The main purpose of the module is teaching a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired		The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level C1.2 and the specific demands of everyday student life.
Content of the Module		Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level C1.2.
Form(s) of Class (-es)		Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation		Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total	180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance	120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :	60 h
	B Individually-organised Work within the Module	Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation	Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of	Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark.
	Repetition of Test	The test can be repeated at the next possible date
	Final Mark for the Module	The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points		6
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters		Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction		German
Capacity of Classes		max. 18 participants per course

AAA – Int C1.1	Intensive Course: German C1.1	Independent of the Semester	6 CP
Module Description	Intensive course: German as a foreign language - Level C 1.1
Module Code	AAA – Int C1.1
AfK Number	AfK-Nos.67,71
Department / Subject / Institute	Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office), section: German as a foreign language (DaF)
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...	The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:	Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation	Proof of Level B.2 – either with an external language certificate (Goethe Institut, VHS evening classes, German as a foreign language (DaF) certificate – or internal test of the international office
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies	An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module	The main purpose of the module is teaching a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired	The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level C1.1 and the specific demands of everyday student life.
Content of the Module	Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level.C1.1
Form(s) of Class (-es)	Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation	Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total	180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance	120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :	60 h
	B Individually organised Work within the Module	Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation	Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of	Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark. The test can be repeated at the next possible date.
	Repetition of Test
	Final Mark for the Module	The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points	6
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters	Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction	German
Capacity of Classes	max. 18 participants per course

AAA – Int B1		Intensive Course: German B1	Independent of the Semester	6 CP
Module Description		Intensive course: German as a foreign language – Level B1
Module Code		AAA – Int B1
AfK Number		AfK-Nos.69, 74
Department / Subject / Institute		Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office, section : German as a foreign language (DaF))
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...		The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:		Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation		Proof of Level .A2 – either with an external language certificate (Goethe Institut, VHS evening classes, German as a foreign language (DaF) certificate – or internal test of the international office
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies		An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module		The main purpose of the module is teaching a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired		The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level B1 and the specific demands of everyday student life.
Content of the Module		Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level B.1
Form(s) of Class (-es)		Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation		Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total	180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance	120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :	60 h
	B Individually-organised Work within the Module	Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation	Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of	Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark.
	Repetition of Test	The test can be repeated at the next possible date.
	Final Mark for the Module	The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points		6
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters		Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction		German
Capacity of Classes		max. 18 participants per course

AAA – Int B2	Intensive Course: German B2	Independent of the Semester	6 CP
Module Description	I Intensive course: German as a foreign language – Level B2
Module Code	AAA – Int B2
AfK Number	AfK-Nos. 69, 74
Department / Subject / Institute	Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office, section German as a foreign language (DaF))
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...	The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:	Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation	Proof of Level .B1 – either with an external language certificate (Goethe Institut, VHS evening classes, German as a foreign language (DaF) certificate – or internal test of the international office
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies	An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module	The main purpose of the module is teaching.a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired	The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level B2 and the specific demands of everyday student life
Content of the Module	Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level B.2
Form(s) of Class (-es)	Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation	Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total	180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance	120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :	60 h
	B Individually-organised Work within the Module	Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation	Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of	Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark.
	Repetition of Test	The test can be repeated at the next possible date.
	Final Mark for the Module	The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points	6
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters	Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction	German
Capacity of Classes	max. 18 participants per class

AAA – Int A1		Intensive Course: German A1		Independent of the Semester		6 CP
Module Description			Intensive course: German as a foreign language, Level A1
Module Code			AAA – A1
AfK Number			AfK-No. 73
Department / Subject / Institute			Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office, section German as a foreign language (DaF))
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...			The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:			Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation			None
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies			An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module			The main purpose of the module is teaching a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired			The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level A1 and the specific demands of everyday student life
Content of the Module			Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level A.1 (beginners)
Form(s) of Class (-es)			Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation			Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total		180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance		120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :		60 h
	B Individually-organised Work within the Module		Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation		Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of		Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark.
	Repetition of Test		The test can be repeated at the next possible date.
	Final Mark for the Module		The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points			5
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters			Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction			German
Capacity of Classes			max. 18 participants per course

AAA – Int A2	Intensive Course: German A2	Independent of the Semester	6 CP
Module Description	Intensive course: German as a foreign language – Level A2
Module Code	AAA – Int A2
AfK Number	AfK-No. 74
Department / Subject / Institute	Akademisches Auslandsamt (international office, section German as a foreign language (DaF))
Offered in Courses ... / Semesters ...	The Intensive Courses are run independent of a course of study and the semester program. Participation is only possible for students with a foreign university entrance qualification, international colleagues and their families.
Module Supervisor:	Berthold Peter / Knut Eisold
Requirements for Participation	Proof of Level A1 – either with an external language certificate (Goethe Institut, VHS evening classes, German as a foreign language (DaF) certificate – or internal test of the international office
Professional Orientation Relevance to Studies	An adequate knowledge of German is required from foreign Students, applicants, and academics for the purpose of integration in the studies, in the profession and in everyday life outside the university.
Orientation of the Module	The main purpose of the module is teaching a knowledge of German, it is oriented towards “knowledge transfer”.
Skills and Knowledge to be Acquired	The course is based on the discretionary standards in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) for Level A2 and the specific demands of everyday student life.
Content of the Module	Knowledge of grammar and vocabulary and skill in reading and listening comprehension, writing and speaking the German language at Level A.2.
Form(s) of Class (-es)	Language course
Form(s) of Testing/Evaluation	Final test for the module
Workload In hours	Total	180 h
	Of these for A Classes
	Aa Obligatory Attendance	120 h
	Ab Proof of Preparation and Further Study :	60 h
	B Individually-organised Work within the Module	Does not apply
	C Module (final) Test/Evaluation	Belongs with Point A
Test for the Module Type A	Final Test in the Module Consisting of	Every intensive course ends with a test (DSH, TestDaF or PC Test). Reading and listening comprehension, spoken and written expression and grammar are tested and the test given a mark.
	Repetition of Test	The test can be repeated at the next possible date.
	Final Mark for the Module	The final mark is calculated exclusively from the test score.
Credit Points	5
Regularity of Class, Course Length in Semesters	Regularly, independent of the semester
Language of Instruction	German
Capacity of Classes	max. 18 participants per course		